MORNING REPORT

Arts and entertainment reports from The Times, national and international news services and the nation's press.

TELEVISION

Stone

Not Yet Set in Stone: ABC expects to have a deal with "JFK" producer-writer Oliver Stone for a limited-run series. The series would mark the Oscar-winning director's debut in television. Nothing's been signed, although the network thinks that will happen shortly, said ABC spokesman Robert Wright. The series will be for next season or the season after. ABC's dealings with Stone were disclosed Friday by ABC Entertainment President Robert A. Iger, who appeared at a TV industry luncheon.